You don't need to have read any other manga for this. If you've seen Vivid, then you know enough about the characters. This is a gag manga that's funnier and more overtly yuri than the main series.

To be continued

Congratulations on your comic's release, Nekotoufu-sensei!

Vivid LIFE comics are finally on sale!
I'm so happy to see something get serialized in both Nano Ace and Comptiq at the same time!=

Your work is as heart-warming as always but I personally can't get enough of Garyu dressed as Lu-chan (LOL).
No matter how many times I see it, it makes me laugh.~☆

And I think Rio is a genius for making Chibi-Rio.^^

Afterword

Thank you very much for purchasing this volume of Mahou Shoujo Lyrical Nanoha Vivid LIFE!
I've loved the Nanoha series ever since its first season and have been privately supporting it as a fan for years but never even dreamed that a day would come when I'd be contributing to it like this
Man, you just never know what life has in store
With it being such a popular series, there was a lot of pressure, but now that this has somehow managed to take shape, I feel relieved
Nothing would make me happier than people enjoying it even a little

To Tsuzuki-sensei who allowed a novice like me to draw this however I wanted, Fujima-sensei who helped with illustrating when things were busy, Oji道-san who introduced me to Comptiq, the entire Nano Ace editing department, and most of all, to the readers who supported us, thank you so much!

I'll try to keep doing my best so I appreciate all of your continued support

Until then!
